CAUTION

Octavio Curiel Martinez is wanted for his alleged involvement in multiple violent crimes that occurred on August 29, 2018.

On August 29th, Martinez allegedly arrived at a family member's home and shot at that family member multiple times, though the family member was not injured. Martinez allegedly fled the scene in a red, 2018 Toyota Tacoma pickup truck with California license plate 81718L2. Fearing for the safety of Martinez's wife, family members drove to her residence in El Monte, California. Martinez's pregnant wife was discovered at the scene. She had suffered multiple gunshot wounds. Martinez's wife and unborn child were pronounced dead at a hospital later that evening.

Martinez was charged with murder (two counts); attempted murder; assault with a firearm (two counts); shooting at an inhabited dwelling or occupied car; corporal injury to spouse (two counts); assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury; felony child endangerment (two counts); and misdemeanor child endangerment (six counts) in the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, and a state warrant was issued for his arrest on September 5, 2018. A federal arrest warrant was issued by the United States District Court for the Central District of California, Los Angeles, California, on March 15, 2019, after Martinez was charged federally with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.
